

St Albans, Lower Portland, Lower Macdonald and Colo deserve better of Hawkesbury Council

Description

Every part of the Hawkesbury is important and deserving of effective representation and services. But the Hawkesbury is a big place, and residents of more remote areas sometimes feel like they aren't being heard. I get to all parts of our beautiful district as often as I can.

On the weekend I joined the Mayor and six other Councillors on a ~200k road trip to visit the communities of St Albans, Lower Macdonald, Lower Portland and Colo, to listen to locals and to hear their concerns. We learned a lot, took many notes, and we will be returning to those communities regularly.

This video details our trip to those communities and what we learned.

The broadcast of the news program, A Current Affair is referenced in my video, who have drawn attention to the lack of telecommunication services in the Macdonald Valley despite a significant permanent population as well as many tourist accommodation facilities. The ACA story is below:
