Description

I was elected to Hawkesbury Council on September 10, 2016, and I'd like to invite you to follow me here to engage with me over the Council term.

Every newly minted politician begins with high minded intent to do good... to be a deliberative and fair decision maker; to consult their constituency; to be a leader.

But Australians are rightly cynical about politics, and especially about politicians. This website is my experiment in civic engagement. My eleven worthy colleagues have the same goals as myself – to serve our local community. We won't always get it right, but our success may depend on the quality of discourse we engage in with the broader community.

I have a duty to keep you informed about important matters before Council, and where I stand on them. This is one way I'm going to do it.

Climb aboard. This is going to be fun.
